Probably Will	Undecided	I/We will make other arrangements	June 2013		Poconos
Definitely Will	Nope. Just me.	I/we will definitely need accomodations	June 2013	I am saying the Poconos because there is a lot to do there (something for everyone), the cost for a weekend is not prohibitive, I know lots of people who have had their reunions at the Pocono Manor and loved it, we could all be together. I love Chatham and would love to have the reunion there, and if that is the consensus, then okay. But, what would occupy us for a weekend? The shore is also great idea, but unless it was in the fall, after the season, it would be extremely expensive, then, again, what would the activities be? No matter where it is, I'm there.	Poconos

Definitely Will	Will be accompanied	I/We will make other arrangements	May 2013, June 2013	Josh, just a thought -- it might be fun to have our reunion catered in the old CHS gym providing alcohol was allowed. In any event, thank you for creating this survey in addition to all the other work you do to make our reunions such memorable events. See you in 2 years!	Anywhere in NJ
Still Undecided	Will be accompanied	I/we will definitely need accomodations	Fall 2013	Bird watching walk. Never been to the Poconos, so that might be a lot of fun. Even though I/we haven't been back to Chatham in quite some time, the thought of all the traffic, etc. after living in the Midwest for 40+ years does not appeal.	Poconos

Probably Will	Undecided, Partner is beaming in from Neptune - arrival undetermined	I/we will definitely need accomodations	Fall 2013	An indoor sit-down dinner but not too formal with a choice but limited menu selection. An informal outdoor picnic-like afternoon gathering for either lunch or dinner with beer and soft drinks on tap.. Attend some kind of sporting event at CHS, possibly a Friday night or Saturday afternoon football game. Have a otel/motel suite set aside 24/7 where small groups of CHS friends could gather whenever the spirits moved them - perhaps with a well stocked open bar and snacks. Hold a 60's-like atmosphere get-together with music, clothes, a yearbook picture name tag and other memorable items from that time, for instance current events featuring President Kennedy's assassination, the Cuban missile crisis, sporting events etc. Hey, Josh! Good idea!	Chatham may not be large enough to have a facility/venue capable of handling our needs. However some the reunion events should definitely be held there. Perhaps Summit, Morristown, Short Hills or Florham Park perhaps.
Probably Will	Will be accompanied	I/we will definitely need accomodations	Fall 2013	To Honor the Class of 1963... Schedule the reunion for the Homecoming night? Would the CURRENT CHS Band be able to play for us? Perhaps a Fall Parade or football Pep Rally before the game starts?	Absolutely

Will you Attend the 50th Reunion	If attending, will you be accompanied	Accomodations?	When should the Reunion be held	Suggestions for events	Should the Reunion be in Chatham
1) if I am still alive; 2) if it is NOT in Chatham area; 3) most likely YES if it is nearby (say Long Branch = my comments)	Nope. Just me.	I/We will make other arrangements	september	Look at Pier Village (Long Branch shore) = Ocean Place (originally Hilton, now in receivership, but definitely nice & operating). Nice boardwalk/sand/eats/shops/gym, etc., etc. = all upscale. Sept is good re water is the warmest, the prices go down when the Bennies & Soubies vacate, and this resort area is definitely over-built = I think good deals can be cut. They have pretty much completed Pier Village North and are going for a Pier Village South (?? where is all the $ coming from...) Another possibility = Asbury. This is a +/- because parts of very close areas are really bad. However, "downtown" Asbury has many nice, new things. A few blocks inland from the shore...that is one of the problems. The shore area itself has had multiple failed/somewhat successful "restarts." As to actual "events," I am not very imaginative = a fun run/walk (the NJ marathon goes right through here beginning and ending at the boardwalk area in Long Branch)? I haven't been to a reunion since 1983, so I am totally at a loss as to what folks really enjoy. Depending on size, I might be willing to host a cocktail, etc., get-together if it is warm enough to have an outside tent (sizable lawn) = of course, this is predicated on the fact that I will still be around (pt @ MSKCC in NYC since 2008 and looking at more surgery, etc., in the next month...). Also, I don't know how folks (except you & Betty & Millie) really "think" about me.	Shore, even if it costs more
Definitely Will	Nope. Just me.	possibly just one night	Fall 2013	Sorry I did not respond immediately--and MANY THANKS TO YOU AND BETTY FOR TAKING THIS ON. I checked having the reunion in Chatham because I remember Betty mentioned it was important to a number of people. Thanks for traveling to check things out!	Absolutely
Probably Will	Undecided	I/We will make other arrangements	May 2013		Absolutely
Probably Will	Nope. Just me.	I/we will definitely need accomodations	May 2013	I liked the last place, which had room for both large events and smaller venues for smaller groups. Since conversation is the primary activity, I would look for environments that facilitate it...plus hors d'oeuvres.	Absolutely
Probably Will	Will be accompanied	I/we will definitely need accomodations	Fall 2013	A week or 2 after Labor Day and starting on a Sunday or Monday	Poconos

Will you Attend the 50th Reunion	If attending, will you be accompanied	Accomodations?	When should the Reunion be held	Suggestions for events	Should the Reunion be in Chatham
Definitely Will	Nope. Just me.	I/we will definitely need accomodations	You decide.		I'd prefer Chatham but I'll go wherever you all decide.
Still Undecided	Nope. Just me.	I/We will make other arrangements	Fall 2013		Where ever
Probably Will	Nope. Just me.	I/we will definitely need accomodations	June 2013	At least one dinner, some kind of vehicle that would accommodate who's interested in re-seeing our old haunts.	Absolutely
Probably Will	Nope. Just me.	Level Parking Lot for RV	June 2013	informal gatherings with plenty of time to gather to talk.	wherever I can park my RV
Definitely Will	Nope. Just me.	Undecided	May or June	I thought the venue in Florham Park was very nice...the shore would be fun, but i think it would be difficult to pull together...looking forward to it.	somewhere near Chatham would probably be easiest
Definitely Will	Nope. Just me.	I/we will definitely need accomodations	no time preference	I am not tied to Chatham. Perhaps we should find out where most classmates live and look for a good spot in that general area. As far as events, outdoor activities are always nice: things like hiking, walking, tennis, sightseeing, etc. Big dinners are ok but they don't always facilitate interacting with each other. I would be happy to help with planning in any way I can.	see below
Definitely Will	Will be accompanied	I/we will definitely need accomodations	June 2013	The whole idea of "reunion" is coming back and getting together...It should be in Chatham, in my opinion. Since my dad has passed away (in 2008) we have no family ties to Chatham, so I would really like to go "home" for the reunion. Can it really be 50 years?????!! yikes. A relaxed get together on Friday evening...at a local pub or home of a classmate, if there are any still living in Chatham, would be great...a chance to have conversation and get reacquainted. How about Charlie Brown's in the Township? On Saturday, a fun buffet-style, casual dinner would be perfect, to afford conversation in a comfortable setting, with "our" music as background. On Sunday...a brunch would be an idea...again a buffet-style offering over a few hours. This would allow us to visit and set up contacts for the next 5 years. Could there be a memorial service for deceased classmates at a local church? Being of the VietNam generation, I think there might be quite a few classmates that we should remember. We could combine celebration and remembrance ... what a nice thought.	Absolutely
Definitely Will Not	Nope. Just me.	not comming	June 2013		Absolutely
Probably Will	Will be accompanied	I/we will definitely need accomodations	June 2013		Absolutely
Probably Will	Undecided	I/we will definitely need accomodations	May 2013	Tea party or union rally, each with a dance contest.	Absolutely
Probably Will	Nope. Just me.	Undecided	Fall 2013	NO really loud music. Lot's of time to just sit and chat and maybe snack so there is lot's of opportunity to spend time with various people you want to see. Formal dinner - Not necessary for me. The more casual and laid back the better.  using a campus and dorms would prob be cheaper and easier to find places to sit and chat,but I guess that lets out fall. Activities - perhaps yoga, tai chi stuff like that.	Shore, even if it costs more, some college campus
Probably Will	Nope. Just me.	still live in area	Fall 2013	Maybe someone could sponsor us to attend the Park Ave. Club (across the street from the Hilton); however, the cruise around Manhattan sounded good too. Congratulations on your retirement, Josh.	Absolutely

Definitely Will	Will be accompanied	I/we will definitely need accomodations	June 2013	I suggest mid to late June, as early June would conflict with graduations; we, in fact, will have two in our family. Early fall might also be a fine time for the reunion.	Absolutely
