

Former Carolyn Rudow Dies After Long Illness

CHATHAM - Funeral services for Mrs. Carolyn Rudow Westfall, who died Wednesday, March 29, 1967 at the United States Public Health Services Hospital, Staten Island, after a long illness, were held Saturday from the William A. Bradley & Son Funeral Home follow by services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. She was the daughter of Police Chief and Mrs. Richard G. Rudow.

Mrs. Westfall, who was 22 years old, was born in San Diego, Calif., and had lived here most of her life. She was a graduate of Chatham High School, class of '63

She is survived by her parents; her husband, Daniel T., serving with the United States Coast Guard; an infant daughter, Carolyn; a brother, Richard; a sister, Miss Nancy Rudow; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Rudow of Chatham.